Many Immigrants Besides Returning Tourists on Way to America.

The tide of transatlantic travel has tourists journeying homeward, are a great many immigrants, coming from Scandinavia on four ships and from Italy on four more. In addition several ships have big steerages from England

Apparently the British Government has modified its ruling concerning liners Star liner Celtic (L-8), now in midecean, paused at that port, presumably to take on board the large numbers of Irish girls who have been coming steadily to this city for some time.

Despite the westward tide of travel, the Chelsea district river front presented
